

TUESDAY 26 SEPTEMBER 2017

- 08:30-09:00 Participant Registration
- 09:30-10:30 Opening Ceremony
- 10:30-11:00 Refreshments
- 11:00-12:30 High-level Panel “Humanity for Environment”
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:30 Introduction of agenda, admin issues
Moderated introductions
- 14:30-15:30 Readiness for Environmental Emergency Response. First roving sessions.
(Participants take part in two sessions – sign-up for sessions takes place during registration)
Session 1. Learning from past responses: experiences from around the world
Session 2. Getting ready to respond: exercises and trainings
Session 3. Chemical accident prevention and preparedness
Other possible topics include:
-Natech
-Integrating environmental emergencies in DRR
-Technological Innovation in environmental emergency response
-Mobilizing the private sector for emergency preparedness and response
-Sendai Framework in practice: addressing technological hazards in disaster risk management
-Sharing good practices: country experiences and results
-Preparing for the unexpected: addressing new environmental emergency threats
- 15:30-16:00 Refreshments
- 16:00-17:00 Readiness for Environmental Emergency Response, continued
(Second roving session)
- 17:15-18:00 Ignite Stage
- 18:30-20:00 Green Star Awards ceremony, followed by cocktails

WEDNESDAY 27 SEPTEMBER 201709:00-09:45 Introduction: Presentation by keynote speaker*Day 1 – Summary*09:30-10:30 Integrating Environment in Humanitarian Response. First roving sessions.Introduction to each topic is held in plenary.Topic 1: *Country experiences of reducing environmental damage through humanitarian actionTopic 2: *Environment management systems and operational safeguardsTopic 3: *Coordinating environmental assessments in humanitarian responseOther possible topics include:- Opportunities for environmental management through humanitarian cash programming*10:30-11:00 *Refreshments11:00-13:00 Integrating Environment in Humanitarian Response, continued(Second roving session)*13:00-14:00 *Lunch14:00-15:30 Disaster Waste Management15:30-16:15 *Refreshments16:00-17:00 Setting the scene: Environment in Conflict SettingsTopic: Collecting environmental data and monitoring risks before, during and after conflicts17:15-18:30 Free time / Ignite Stage*18:30-20:00 Dinner*THURSDAY 28 SEPTEMBER 2017*09:00-10:00 Day 2 Summary*Environment and Displacement*10:00-10:45 Moving Forward: Environment in Conflict Settings*Other possible topics include:- Environment along the conflict cycle: examples and opportunities for humanitarian action: case study on Iraq and Syria*10:45-11:15 *Refreshments11:15-12:15 Two sessionsTopic 1: Environment and DisplacementTopic 2: Conflict-sensitive natural resource management in refugee/displacement settings12:15-12:45 Plenary Session on Next Steps: the Road to UNEA*Summary of main points*12:45-13:30 Closing Ceremony and Evaluation